

YORK COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

2017 Total Grants: $53,600

$500 to Allegro Foundation to help fund free weekly programs for children with disabilities.

$2,500 to Allplaytogether to build the first all-inclusive playground in Fort Mill.

$5,000 to Arts Council of York County to refresh the public art designs on the back wall of York County's Center for the Arts.

$5,000 to Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Charlotte to run school-based mentoring programs for York County students.

$4,000 to Boys & Girls Clubs of York County for summer camp programs that provide quality experiences and character development.

$1,600 to Boy Scouts of America, Palmetto Council for Cub Scout Summer Day Camp that gives scouts in opportunity to learn and develop with other young men in an outdoor learning environment.

$7,500 to Camp Canaan to expand the Canaan High Adventure Course that will feature new elements and environmental opportunities.

$1,500 to Catawba Riverkeeper Foundation to train York County citizens to identify, investigate, and report water quality problems that impact the health of the Catawba River.

$2,000 to Girl Scouts, Hornets' Nest Council to empower girls throughout York County's underserved areas with the self-confidence to make positive health, education and career decisions.

$2,000 to Habitat for Humanity of York County for critical home repair projects that address major housing deficiencies.

$2,500 to Hope Incorporated (Project Hope) to increase its outreach to the senior citizens in York County, many of whom have little or no access to reliable transportation.

$2,500 to Hospice and Community Care to help fund basic patients' needs.

$1,000 to Invent Now, Inc. to fund a week-long summer program directed by local teachers in York County, focusing on creative thinking and STEM content.

$2,000 to Keystone Substance Abuse Services to create a healthy environment for men and women in treatment with alcohol or other substance use issues.

$5,000 to Palmetto School at the Children's Attention Home to help students learn essential academic skills through science, technology, engineering, arts, and math.

$2,000 to Renew Our Community to provide equitable access to oral health care for adults in York County.

$2,000 to Rideability Therapeutic Riding Center to help improve the lives on children and adults with special needs through facilitated interactions with horses.

$2,000 to Ronald McDonald House of Charlotte to provide York County families with a safe place to stay for a length of 14 nights.

$3,000 to York County Free Clinic to provide basic health care to medically uninsured, eligible residents of York County.