Grants Available for York County Nonprofits The York County Community Foundation Now Accepting Applications

February 12, 2018 – The York County Community Foundation is currently accepting applications from eligible York County organizations including 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, congregations, governmental and educational institutions for its 2018 grant program.

In 2017, the York County Community Foundation awarded $53,600 in grant funding to local organizations. Grant awards ranged from $500 to $7,500 and the most common award was $2,000.

Grants this year will be made to support programs that focus on arts and culture, K-12 education, environment, health or human services. Proposals must fall within one of these areas to be considered. Additional information and guidance is available online.

To begin the application process, grant seekers are invited to visit the Online Grants Center at <https://fftcgrants.communityforce.com> and search for York County Community Foundation to access the online application.

Past applicants can login to the Online Grants Center using their previously established account information. First-time applicants can create a new account.

Completed applications must be submitted online by noon on Friday, March 9, 2018. The system closes promptly at 12:00 p.m. and will not accept late submissions.

Contact Katie Russell with further questions about the application process at krussell@fftc.org or 704.973.4559.

About the York County Community Foundation
