Grants Available for Cabarrus County Nonprofits *The Cabarrus County Community Foundation Now Accepting Applications

September 9, 2019 – The Cabarrus County Community Foundation is currently accepting applications from eligible Cabarrus County organizations including 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, congregations, governmental and educational institutions for its 2019 grant program.

In 2018, the Cabarrus County Community Foundation awarded nearly $115,000 in grant funding to local organizations. This year, the board anticipates awarding grants up to $10,000, but for exceptional applications that would be impactful to residents of Cabarrus County, the board will consider larger requests. Historically, the Cabarrus County Community Foundation's most common award amount has been $5,000.

Grants this year will be made to support programs that focus on arts and culture, education, environment, health, human services or housing. Proposals must fall within one of these areas to be considered. Additional information and guidance is available online.

To begin the application process, grant seekers are invited to visit the Online Grants Center at <https://fftcgrants.communityforce.com> and search for Cabarrus County Community Foundation to access the online application.

Past applicants can login to the Online Grants Center using their previously established account information. First-time applicants can create a new account.

Completed applications must be submitted online by noon on Friday, October 4, 2019. The system closes promptly at 12:00 p.m. and will not accept late submissions.

Please contact Katie Russell with further questions about the application process at krussell@fftc.org or 704.973.4559.
