

August 2, 2021

News Release

Grants Available: Union County Community Foundation Now Accepting Applications From Nonprofits

Monroe, N.C. – The Union County Community Foundation is currently accepting applications for its 2021 grant program. Eligible organizations include 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, congregations, governmental and educational institutions.

Grants will be awarded in support of a broad range of charitable purposes. Priority will be given to programs that provide professional development opportunities for Union County public school teachers and to projects that provide support for individuals with mental or physical disabilities due to visual or hearing impairments. All proposed projects and programs must serve residents of Union County.

Award amounts will be determined based on the merits of the proposed project.

To begin the application process, visit fftcgrants.communityforce.com and select “Union County Community Foundation” to access the online application. Returning applicant organizations can log in to the Online Grants Center using their previously established ID and password. First-time applicant organizations can create a new account.

Completed applications must be submitted by noon on Friday, Aug. 27. The online application closes promptly at 12 p.m. and will not accept late submissions.

Please contact Nicole Fote with further questions about the application process at nfote@fftc.org or at 704.973.4559.

About the Union County Community Foundation:

Established in 1989 as a permanent endowment, the Union County Community Foundation benefits a wide range of charitable purposes. As an affiliate of Charlotte-based Foundation For The Carolinas, the Union County Community Foundation inspires philanthropy, increases charitable giving and strengthens the community. Visit www.unioncounty-cf.org for more information.

###

Media Contact: Nicole Fote, Board & Grants Specialist, Foundation For The Carolinas, 704.973.4559 or nfote@fftc.org.