Grants Available: York County Community Foundation Now Accepting Applications from Nonprofits

YORK COUNTY, SC – The York County Community Foundation is currently accepting applications for its 2022 grant program. Eligible applicants include 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, congregations, governmental and educational institutions.

The Foundation will prioritize requests for projects and programs that address arts and culture, education, the environment, health or human services. All proposed projects and programs must serve residents of York County.

Award amounts will be determined based on the merits of the proposed project. Previous awards have ranged from $500 to $5,000, but the Foundation will consider requests up to $10,000.

To begin the application process, visit fftcgrants.communityforce.com and select “York County Community Foundation” to access the online application. Returning applicant organizations can log in to the Online Grants Center using their previously established ID and password. First-time applicant organizations can create a new account. Completed applications must be submitted online by noon on Friday, April 1. The online application closes promptly at 12 p.m. and will not accept late submissions.

Please contact Nicole Fote with further questions about the application process at nfote@fftc.org or at 704.973.4559.
