Grants Available: York County Community Foundation Now Accepting Applications from Nonprofits

YORK COUNTY, SC – The York County Community Foundation is currently accepting applications for its 2025 grant program. Eligible applicants include 501(c)(3) publicly supported charities, churches and religious organizations, governmental agencies and educational institutions.

The Foundation seeks effective programs and strategies that address community needs, prioritizing requests that focus on arts and culture, education, environment, food, agriculture and nutrition, health, housing and shelter, and human services. Please note that priority will go to projects that demonstrate strong collaboration and strategic partnerships. The most competitive applications will clearly show how these joint efforts enhance impact across York County. All projects and programs must serve residents of York County.

Award amounts will be determined based on the merits of the proposed project and the Foundation's available funds. Previous awards have ranged from $1,000 to $5,000.

To begin the application process, visit fftcgrants.communityforce.com and select "York County Community Foundation" to access the online application. Returning applicant organizations can log in to the Online Grants Center using their previously established ID and password. First-time applicant organizations can create a new account.

Completed applications must be submitted online by noon on Friday, August 1, 2025. The online application closes promptly at 12 p.m. and will not accept late submissions. Please contact Nia Scarboro with further questions about the application process at nscarboro@fftc.org or 704.973.4504.
