

Alyssa A. Federico, CPA
Chief Financial Officer

As Chief Financial Officer at Foundation For The Carolinas, Alyssa Federico serves as the Foundation's financial point of contact for client relationships and other accounting-related issues. She manages the daily activities of the Finance and Investment Teams and is responsible for overseeing the internal controls of the Foundation and ensuring adequate controls exist.

Alyssa has more than 27 years of experience in auditing and nonprofit accounting. She spent five years in the field of public accounting, with a concentration in nonprofit auditing. She currently serves as Past Chair for the Finance, Administration and Operations Group (FAOG - a national network of community foundation finance, administrative and investment executives) and as a board member for CF Insights (a national data collective for community foundations). She is also a finance/audit committee member for Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina and CharlotteWorks as well as a member of the AICPA Not-For-Profit Advisory Council.

Alyssa holds a B.S. in Accounting and Masters of Professional Accountancy in Taxation from the University of Utah.

January 2025