

Malcomb Coley

Partner

US – Central Region Private Leader & Charlotte Managing Partner

Malcomb is a client serving Partner with over 31 years of experience with EY. In addition to his leadership roles, Malcomb serves as the US Central Presiding Partner. As such he's a member of EY's leadership team and sits on the firm's Global Governance Council, the Americas Advisory Council and the US Partner Principle Council.

He currently serves on the Board of Directors of several organizations including the Charlotte Regional Business Alliance (Chair 2022), United Way of Central Carolinas (Chair 2019), Charlotte Sports Foundation, Charlotte City Center Partner, UNCC Belk College of Business Board of Advisors and the Cameron School of Business Executive Advisory Board for UNC-Wilmington. He is also on the Endowment Board for UNC-Wilmington and Friends of Trinity Episcopal School Board. He also sits on the board of Trustees for the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and Queens University in Charlotte. In 2021, Malcomb was appointed to the NC Rail Road Board of Directors by Governor Roy Cooper.

Malcomb has a 31-year career with EY, which began in the Raleigh office. In Atlanta he was a Senior Assurance Partner where he served a variety of both public and private clients in retail and consumer products, mining and minerals, venture capital and insurance.

Malcomb and his wife Tammie have four children: Dana, Adia, Tanna, and DJ. In his spare time, he enjoys running, exercise and golf.