Our custom service platform offers additional support from dedicated FFTC experts in the areas of governance, investments, grantmaking and evaluation. A trusted partner in philanthropy

When retired media executive Bob Horner needed charitable giving advice he came to Foundation For The Carolinas, where he found philanthropic experts who helped him open a donor advised fund. He also supported the Robinson Center for Civic Leadership, FFTC's flagship program, to address community needs.

Pleased with his experience with the Foundation, he created a planned gift using retirement fund assets, crafting a custom philanthropic legacy. Half of his charitable estate will fund an FFTC Donor Advised Fund from which his son will make grants.

The other half is entrusted to FFTC's Community Impact Funds, providing permanent discretionary dollars to support the community's evolving needs, as well as ongoing Foundation operations. Bob said, "I know I can trust FFTC to make the right decisions with the resources I leave behind."

A planned gift can be established at FFTC with a variety of assets, such as:

- Retirement plan assets
- Life insurance policies
- Charitable remainder trusts
- Charitable lead trusts
- Publicly traded securities
- Privately held stock
- Cash
- Real property

FFTC headquarters brings to life the dreams of the Luski and Gorelick families to create a home for civic engagement. The building includes convening spaces, a public art gallery and stories that capture the spirit of philanthropy in our region.

Philanthropy is an art that benefits everyone.

Come be inspired.
